Australia

About the Aurora Neuroinclusion Program:

Services Australia's Aurora Neuroinclusion Program (Aurora) aims to improve work and career outcomes for people with an autism or ADHD diagnosis.

Together with Employ for Ability, Aurora offers a unique recruitment process that's flexible, safe, supportive and inclusive. Aurora offers roles in a variety of fields and:

- provides a career pathway into the agency for people with an autism or ADHD diagnosis
- demonstrates the individual and organisational benefits of employing people with autism or ADHD through an inclusive recruitment process
- showcases the diverse and unique skills and attributes people with an autism or ADHD diagnosis have to offer in employment
- aims to increase the representation of people with disability in the agency and the Australian Public Service (APS).

Aurora offers:

- a tailored and flexible assessment phase
- ongoing roles with attractive working conditions
- job security with a competitive salary
- opportunities to develop skills to support your career.

We're looking for people who:

- are keen to learn
- want to make a positive difference in the lives of Australians
- want to start their career in the APS.

If you're successful, you'll be offered a full-time ongoing position. If you're selected but not offered a position, you'll be placed on a merit list for up to 18 months, making you eligible if a suitable position becomes available.

APS5 Technical Information and Knowledge Officer – Strategy and Performance Group, Data and Analytics Division, Data Analytics Innovation Branch

Technical Information and Knowledge Officers work across a range of business areas and assist in providing information and data that meets stakeholder and agency needs. They assist with information management, data extraction and knowledge transfer. They understand data requirements and analyse scenarios with management information systems.

They gather and assist in the process of controlling information by considering the following information management factors: policy, design, sourcing, analysis, compliance and interpretation.

The Data Analytics Innovation Branch supports the agency's Data and Analytics Strategy through analysis and innovation, as well as developing and delivering data and analytics services and support. They seek to:

- understand and trial new data analytics capabilities to demonstrate how they can help the agency to achieve its goals
- highlight the added value that can be gained from the agency's rich data assets, and
- discover opportunities to further enrich our data with new sources and improved integration.

What you'll do:

As a Technical Information and Knowledge Officer, you work as part of a multi-skilled team to:

- obtain, analyse and interpret data, and present analysis effectively
- conduct quality assurance and ensure adherence with procedures
- contribute to draft documents including procedures and manuals
- conduct research
- provide advice and guidance on the use of management information systems
- perform query and programming functions to assist with data extraction
- detect data inconsistencies using troubleshooting procedures
- apply data analysis and modelling to establish, modify or maintain data structures

What you should have:

These things are important to have.

The ability to:

- think critically and apply solid problem-solving skills
- demonstrate a high level of accuracy and attention to detail
- research and make decisions based on evidence
- work independently and seek help when required
- interact with staff and agency stakeholders

- analyse business requirements and identify solutions and improvements.

What is nice to have:

These things aren't essential, but if you have them that's great:

- programming and data extraction skills using SAS and SQL.

How to apply

Apply for the Aurora Neuroinclusion Program through Employ for Ability.

There are 3 stages to our recruitment process:

- application
- assessment
- selection.

Before you apply

Before you apply, check if you're eligible.

To be eligible, you need to provide evidence of a diagnosis of either:

- Autism Spectrum Disorder/Condition, including autistic disorder (autism), Asperger's syndrome, childhood disintegrative disorder, or pervasive developmental disorder not otherwise specified (PDD-NOS)
- Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD).

Evidence may include either:

- a full diagnostic report or a redacted section of your report that states autism or ADHD as a diagnosis
- a letter from a psychologist, psychiatrist or general practitioner confirming a diagnosis of autism or ADHD
- information confirming your diagnosis from a supporting agency such as the NDIS or a Disability Employment Services provider.

If you have any questions or concerns about your evidence, please contact aurora@employforability.com.au.

In addition to providing evidence of your diagnosis, you'll need to provide:

Proof of Australian citizenship – please refer to the information at the bottom of this document for details.

You must also:

- undergo an Australian government security clearance, including a criminal history check
- be able to obtain a Baseline security clearance

- live (or be willing to relocate to) a daily commutable distance to Hobart CBD.

Tell us about you

- If you don't have a current CV or resume you may create one by listing your current and previous work and educational history (in date order from most recent to least recent on a Word document and upload to your application).
- Make sure you include any volunteer work which would showcase your skills and demonstrate your suitability for the role.

In addition to demonstrating you meet the eligibility requirements, you must also provide a response to the 3 applicant response questions listed below:

Applicant response:

We ask that you write a one page document (minimum 11pt font in Word or PDF format) that provides more information about you to support your application for this opportunity. This must be uploaded as an attachment on the application page.

In your response, please describe the following:

1. How your skills, knowledge and experience are relevant to this role.
2. What motivates you to apply for this role.
3. Any specific examples or achievements that demonstrate your suitability for the program.

To answer these questions, you may use work or study examples or from personal experience you may have (for example as a hobby from home). Ultimately, we'd like to know more about you and why you feel you would be suited to this role.

Notes on the assessment process:

Shortlisted applicants will be invited to attend a screening workshop, held in the Hobart CBD, Tasmania. Following this, a final shortlist will be conducted and those candidates will advance to the final stage of the recruitment process. This is a 3-day assessment led by Services Australia also held in the Hobart, Tasmania.
