Services
Australia

About the Aurora Neuroinclusion Program:

Services Australia's Aurora Neuroinclusion Program (Aurora) aims to improve work and career outcomes for people with an autism or ADHD diagnosis. Together with Employ for Ability, Aurora offers a unique recruitment process that's flexible, safe, supportive and inclusive. Aurora offers roles in a variety of fields and:

- provides a career pathway into the agency for people with an autism or ADHD diagnosis
- demonstrates the individual and organisational benefits of employing people with autism or ADHD through an inclusive recruitment process
- showcases the diverse and unique skills and attributes people with an autism or ADHD diagnosis have to offer in employment
- aims to increase the representation of people with disability in the agency and the Australian Public Service (APS).

Aurora offers:

- a tailored and flexible assessment phase
- ongoing roles with attractive working conditions
- job security with a competitive salary
- opportunities to develop skills to support your career.

We're looking for people who:

- are keen to learn
- want to make a positive difference in the lives of Australians
- want to start their career in the APS.

If you're successful, you'll be offered a full-time ongoing position. If you're selected but not offered a position, you'll be placed on a merit list for up to 18 months, making you eligible if a suitable position becomes available.

Available position

Aurora is currently accepting applications from eligible candidates for the following roles based in Hobart, TAS.

APS4 Intelligence Officer, Payments and Integrity Group, Fraud Control and Investigations Division, Intelligence Branch

Intelligence Officers detect and analyse information and data to produce intelligence to identify and manage threats of corruption, or exploitation of payments and services administered by the agency.

They undertake initial assessments and low complexity intelligence activities on potential fraud threats to support fraud intelligence functions. This can include contacting Services Australia customers where they are at risk of being the victim of fraud.

The Intelligence Branch minimises harm to the agency's customers and protects the integrity of the agency's payments and services through proactive intelligence strategies, sophisticated analysis, and the production of high-quality intelligence advice. They focus on up-front fraud controls to reduce harm to customers whose identify has been compromised and stop fraudulent payments from being issued.

What you'll do:

As an Intelligence Officer you work as part of a multi-skilled team to:

- action real-time alerts triggered through fraud detection systems
- triage high-risk detections of suspected fraud in line with guidelines
- undertake pre-payment analysis on high-risk claims and transactions
- contribute to fraud detection and prevention strategies.

What you should have:

These things are important to have.

The ability to:

- think critically and apply solid problem-solving skills
- demonstrate a high level of accuracy and attention to detail
- research and make decisions based on evidence
- work independently and seek help when required
- provide customer service over the phone
- interact with staff and agency stakeholders
- analyse business requirements and identify solutions and improvements.

What is nice to have:

These things aren't essential, but if you have them that's great

A knowledge and understanding of:

- information analysis techniques

Skills for the Information Age:

- Threat intelligence THIN – Level 2

How to apply

Apply for the Aurora Neuroinclusion Program through Employ for Ability.

There are 3 stages to our recruitment process:

- application
- assessment
- selection.

Before you apply

Before you apply, check if you're eligible.

To be eligible, you need to provide evidence of a diagnosis of either:

- Autism Spectrum Disorder/Condition, including autistic disorder (autism), Asperger's syndrome, childhood disintegrative disorder, or pervasive developmental disorder not otherwise specified (PDD-NOS)
- Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD).

Evidence may include either:

- a full diagnostic report or a redacted section of your report that states autism or ADHD as a diagnosis
- a letter from a psychologist, psychiatrist or general practitioner confirming a diagnosis of autism or ADHD
- information confirming your diagnosis from a supporting agency such as the NDIS or a Disability Employment Services provider.

If you have any questions or concerns about your evidence, please contact aurora@employforability.com.au.

In addition to providing evidence of your diagnosis, you'll need to provide:

Proof of Australian citizenship – please refer to the information at the bottom of this document for details.

You must also:

- undergo an Australian government security clearance, including a criminal history check
- be able to obtain a Baseline security clearance
- live (or be willing to relocate to) a daily commutable distance to Hobart CBD.

Tell us about you

- If you don't have a current CV or resume you may create one by listing your current and previous work and educational history (in date order from most recent to least recent on a Word document and upload to your application).
- Make sure you include any volunteer work which would showcase your skills and demonstrate your suitability for the role.

In addition to demonstrating you meet the eligibility requirements, you must also provide a response to the 3 applicant response questions listed below:

Applicant response:

We ask that you write a one page document (minimum 11pt font in Word or PDF format) that provides more information about you to support your application for this opportunity. This must be uploaded as an attachment on the application page.

In your response, please describe the following:

1. How your skills, knowledge and experience are relevant to this role.
2. What motivates you to apply for this role.
3. Any specific examples or achievements that demonstrate your suitability for the program.

To answer these questions, you may use work or study examples or from personal experience you may have (for example as a hobby from home). Ultimately, we'd like to know more about you and why you feel you would be suited to this role.

Notes on the assessment process:

Shortlisted applicants will be invited to attend a screening workshop, held in the Hobart CBD, Tasmania. Following this, a final shortlist will be conducted and those candidates will advance to the final stage of the recruitment process. This is a 3-day assessment led by Services Australia also held in the Hobart, Tasmania.
