

Adelaide– APS5 Program Officer

Services Australia

About the Aurora Neuroinclusion Program:

Services Australia's Aurora Neuroinclusion Program (Aurora) aims to improve work and career outcomes for people with an autism or ADHD diagnosis.

Together with Employ for Ability, Aurora offers a unique recruitment process that is flexible, safe, supportive, and inclusive. Aurora offers roles in a variety of fields and:

- provides a career pathway into the agency for people with an autism or ADHD diagnosis
- demonstrates the individual and organisational benefits of employing people with autism or ADHD through an inclusive recruitment process
- showcases the diverse and unique skills and attributes people with an autism or ADHD diagnosis have to offer in employment
- aims to increase the representation of people with disability in the agency and the Australian Public Service (APS).

Aurora offers:

- a tailored and flexible assessment phase
- ongoing roles with attractive working conditions
- job security with a competitive salary
- opportunities to develop skills to support your career.

We are looking for people who:

- are keen to learn
- want to make a positive difference in the lives of Australians
- want to start their career in the APS.

If you are successful and matched to a role, you will be offered a full-time ongoing position. If you are successful and not matched to a role, you will be placed on a merit list for up to 18 months. The merit list is active for 18 months from the advertising date. If a position becomes available during that time you may be considered for that position.

IMPORTANT DATES:

22 July 2024	Aurora Adelaide application open
18 August 2024	Aurora Adelaide applications close

9 September 2024	Aurora Adelaide final assessment program (Adelaide CBD)
October 2024	Offers of employment announced

Aurora is currently accepting applications from eligible candidates for the following role based in Adelaide:

Program Officer (APS5) – Payments and Integrity Group, Payment Assurance, Program and Appeals Division, Debt and Compensation Program Branch

Program Officers support projects by monitoring project schedules and budgets, preparing progress reports, and liaising with key stakeholders.

They provide high-level procedural, administrative and operational support to deliver agency programs. Working under the direction of senior staff, they support strategic planning and policy development, contributing to changes in workplace practices and business improvement strategies.

The Debt and Compensation Program Branch works across the agency and with external stakeholders to promote debt prevention, improve the consistency, effectiveness and efficiency of debt and compensation program management across social welfare and Medicare; and develop initiatives to achieve improved debt and compensation outcomes.

What you'll do:

As a Program Officer you work as part of a multi-skilled team to:

- communicate with stakeholders to deliver programs
- attend meetings and forums to obtain and share information
- monitor and report on the achievement of business outcomes, key performance indicators and quality assurance
- assist in the review and development of policies and guidelines
- resolve and escalate program and policy issues
- draft business cases, reports and executive briefs
- undertake research and analysis.

What you should have:

These things are important to have.

The ability to:

- demonstrate a high level of accuracy and attention to detail
- problem-solve to identify solutions and process improvements
- interact with team members and agency stakeholders
- work independently and seek help when required

- undertake research and analysis
- learn new technologies and products.

What is nice to have:

These things aren't essential, but if you have them that's great:

- an understanding of program and project frameworks and policies.

How to apply

Apply for the Aurora Neuroinclusion Program through Employ for Ability.

There are 3 stages to our recruitment process:

- application
- assessment
- selection.

Before you apply

Before you apply, check if you're eligible.

To be eligible, you need to provide evidence of a diagnosis of either:

- Autism Spectrum Disorder/Condition, including autistic disorder (autism), Asperger's syndrome, childhood disintegrative disorder, or pervasive developmental disorder not otherwise specified (PDD-NOS)
- Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD).

Evidence may include either:

- a full diagnostic report or a redacted section of your report that states autism or ADHD as a diagnosis
- a letter from a psychologist, psychiatrist or general practitioner confirming a diagnosis of autism or ADHD
- information confirming your diagnosis from a supporting agency such as the NDIS or a Disability Employment Services provider.

If you have any questions or concerns about your evidence, please contact aurora@employforability.com.au.

In addition to providing evidence of your diagnosis, you'll need to provide:

Proof of Australian citizenship – please refer to the information at the bottom of this document for details.

You must also:

- undergo an Australian government security clearance, including a criminal history check

- be able to obtain a Baseline security clearance
- live (or be willing to relocate to) a daily commutable distance to Adelaide CBD.

Tell us about you

- If you don't have a current CV or resume you may create one by listing your current and previous work and educational history (in date order from most recent to least recent on a Word document and upload to your application).
- Make sure you include any volunteer work which would showcase your skills and demonstrate your suitability for the role.

In addition to demonstrating you meet the eligibility requirements, you must also provide a response to the 3 applicant response questions listed below:

Applicant response:

We ask that you write a one-page document (minimum 11pt font in Word or PDF format) that provides more information about you to support your application for this opportunity. This must be uploaded as an attachment on the application page.

In your response, please describe the following:

1. How your skills, knowledge and experience are relevant to this role.
2. What motivates you to apply for this role.
3. Any specific examples or achievements that demonstrate your suitability for the program.

To answer these questions, you may use work or study examples or from personal experience you may have (for example as a hobby from home). Ultimately, we'd like to know more about you and why you feel you would be suited to this role.

Notes on the assessment process:

Shortlisted applicants will be invited to attend a screening workshop, held in the Adelaide CBD. Following this, a final shortlist will be conducted, and those candidates will advance to the final stage of the recruitment process. This is a 3-day assessment led by Services Australia also held in Adelaide CBD.
