

CANBERRA – Analyst Support Officer (APS4)

About the Aurora Neuroinclusion Program:

Services Australia's Aurora Neuroinclusion Program (Aurora) aims to improve work and career outcomes for people with an autism or ADHD diagnosis.

Together with Employ for Ability, Aurora offers a unique recruitment process that's flexible, safe, supportive and inclusive. Aurora offers roles in a variety of fields and:

- provides a career pathway into the agency for people with an autism or ADHD diagnosis
- demonstrates the individual and organisational benefits of employing people with autism or ADHD through an inclusive recruitment process
- showcases the diverse and unique skills and attributes people with an autism or ADHD diagnosis have to offer in employment
- aims to increase the representation of people with disability in the agency and the Australian Public Service (APS).

Aurora offers:

- a tailored and flexible assessment phase
- ongoing roles with attractive working conditions
- job security with a competitive salary
- opportunities to develop skills to support your career.

We're looking for people who:

- are keen to learn
- want to make a positive difference in the lives of Australians
- want to start their career in the APS.

If you're successful and matched to a role, you'll be offered a full-time ongoing position. If you're successful and not matched to a role, you'll be placed in a merit pool for up to 18 months. The merit pool is active for 18 months from the advertising date. If a position becomes available during that time you may be considered for that position.

Analyst Support Officer (APS4) – Technology and Digital Programs Group, Technology Strategy, Business & Architecture Division, Technology Business Services Branch

Analyst Support Officers work across a range of business areas and provide support by assisting in collecting, designing, analysing and reporting information.

They assist with the collection and examination of information and data, and contribute to reports, findings, decision making and recommendations using an evidence based approach. They work under the direction of senior staff and use independent judgement to make decisions.

The Technology Business Services Branch works across the Technology and Digital Programs Group to understand current and future workforce needs by informing the re-design and development of workforce interventions that enable the group to better attract, recruit, develop and retain its workforce. It supports talent management strategies, provides group-wide business management functions including property management, recruitment, business continuity planning and reporting. It leads communication and engagement activities to focus, support, build and connect staff.

What you'll do:

As an Analyst Support Officer, you work as part of a multi-skilled team to:

- gather, examine and evaluate qualitative and quantitative data and information and report on findings
- assist with business analysis processes, gathering information and preparing output requirements for review by senior staff
- coordinate and monitor correspondence flow of work area
- perform research and analysis to assist with the preparation of reports or briefs
- provide assistance with technical specifications
- use information databases and analytical tools to perform data extraction and retrieval for reporting tasks
- assist with quality assurance and data validation
- provide advice to stakeholders to resolve enquiries

- identify risks and problems, contribute to resolutions, and escalate issues to senior staff
- contribute new ideas and identify team improvement initiatives and projects.

What you should have:

These things are important to have.

The ability to:

- think critically and apply solid problem-solving skills
- demonstrate a high level of accuracy and attention to detail
- work independently and seek assistance when required
- interact with staff, agency stakeholders and customers
- analyse information and data to identify issues and report your findings
- learn new software platforms and programs
- interpret, apply and explain legislation, policy and procedures.

What it's nice to have:

These things aren't essential, but if you have them that's great.

Experience using the following:

- Microsoft Excel
- Database/flow charts.

How to apply

Apply for the Aurora Neuroinclusion Program through Employ for Ability.

There are 3 stages to our recruitment process:

- application
- assessment
- selection.

Before you apply

Before you apply, check if you're eligible.

To be eligible, you need to provide evidence of a diagnosis of either:

- Autism Spectrum Disorder/Condition, including autistic disorder (autism), Asperger's syndrome, childhood disintegrative disorder, or pervasive developmental disorder not otherwise specified (PDD-NOS)

- Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD).

Evidence may include either:

- a full diagnostic report or a redacted section of your report that states autism or ADHD as a diagnosis
- a letter from a psychologist, psychiatrist or general practitioner confirming a diagnosis of autism or ADHD
- information confirming your diagnosis from a supporting agency such as the NDIS or a Disability Employment Services provider.

If you have any questions or concerns about your evidence, please contact aurora@employforability.com.au.

In addition to providing evidence of your diagnosis, you'll need to provide:

Proof of Australian citizenship – please refer to the information at the bottom of this document for details.

You must also:

- undergo an Australian government security clearance, including a criminal history check
- be able to obtain a Baseline security clearance
- live (or be willing to relocate to) a daily commutable distance to Canberra, ACT.

Tell us about you

- If you don't have a current CV or resume you may create one by listing your current and previous work and educational history (in date order from most recent to least recent on a Word document and upload to your application).
- Make sure you include any volunteer work which would showcase your skills and demonstrate your suitability for the role.

In addition to demonstrating you meet the eligibility requirements, you must also provide a response to the 3 applicant response questions listed below:

Applicant response:

We ask that you write a one-page document (minimum 11pt font in Word or PDF format) that provides more information about you to support your application for this opportunity. This must be uploaded as an attachment on the application page.

In your response, please describe the following:

1. How your skills, knowledge and experience are relevant to this role.
2. What motivates you to apply for this role.

3. Any specific examples or achievements that demonstrate your suitability for the program.

To answer these questions, you may use work or study examples or from personal experience you may have (for example as a hobby from home). Ultimately, we'd like to know more about you and why you feel you would be suited to this role.

Notes on the assessment process:

Shortlisted applicants will be invited to attend a screening workshop, held in the Canberra CBD. Following this, a final shortlist will be conducted and those candidates will advance to the final stage of the recruitment process. This is a multiple day assessment led by Services Australia also held in the Canberra CBD.
