

CANBERRA – Test Engineer (APS5)

About the Aurora Neuroinclusion Program:

Services Australia's Aurora Neuroinclusion Program (Aurora) aims to improve work and career outcomes for people with an autism or ADHD diagnosis.

Together with Employ for Ability, Aurora offers a unique recruitment process that's flexible, safe, supportive and inclusive. Aurora offers roles in a variety of fields and:

- provides a career pathway into the agency for people with an autism or ADHD diagnosis
- demonstrates the individual and organisational benefits of employing people with autism or ADHD through an inclusive recruitment process
- showcases the diverse and unique skills and attributes people with an autism or ADHD diagnosis have to offer in employment
- aims to increase the representation of people with disability in the agency and the Australian Public Service (APS).

Aurora offers:

- a tailored and flexible assessment phase
- ongoing roles with attractive working conditions
- job security with a competitive salary
- opportunities to develop skills to support your career.

We're looking for people who:

- are keen to learn
- want to make a positive difference in the lives of Australians
- want to start their career in the APS.

If you're successful and matched to a role, you'll be offered a full-time ongoing position. If you're successful and not matched to a role, you'll be placed in a merit pool for up to 18 months. The merit pool is active for 18 months from the advertising date. If a position becomes available during that time you may be considered for that position.

Test Engineer (APS5) – Technology and Digital Programs Group, Data Online Systems & Shared Services Division, Connection, Identity and Authentication Branch

Test management defines overall testing strategies and manages effective planning, monitoring and execution of all testing activities.

The Test Engineer ensures that tests are effectively executed and allocated activities are completed in a structured and consistent manner, in accordance with agreed test guidelines.

Test engineers work under the general direction and support of senior staff. They plan their own work and contribute to team goals in an environment with competing priorities and change.

The Connection, Identity and Authentication Branch focus is the organisation and prioritisation of our people to meet the priorities of government while applying governance and discipline to our delivery approach. We partner with the broader technology sector to identify, develop and position emerging technology capabilities, consolidation and streamlining of our technical environment, and to drive the development of a highly skilled and professional workforce ready to deliver on the evolving future.

Some of the products and services are:

- myGov (web portal and mobile application),
- Digital identity exchange,
- Child Support Online
- myGov support tool
- Digital Assistants and other cognitive services

What you'll do:

As a Test Engineer you work as part of a multi-skilled team to:

- execute test cases and accurately record time and effort
- develop test plans, test cases, task cards and supporting test data
- analyse and report on test activities and results
- escalate issues and risks to senior staff
- contribute to team improvement initiatives and projects, including team tools, process changes and test automation
- identify, manage and document defects, programming errors and operational characteristics that are different from stated requirements and design specifications

- conduct testing to ensure the ICT service functions as required
- support the team to follow business processes and achieve outcomes
- maintain up-to-date knowledge of ICT related legislation, policy and processes
- collaborate with stakeholders to ensure effective and timely implementation of projects
- provide advice and assistance to external software vendors regarding testing and software development
- assist with cost analysis activities.

What you should have:

These things are important to have.

The ability to:

- think critically and apply solid problem-solving skills
- demonstrate a high level of accuracy and attention to detail
- work independently and seek assistance when required
- interact with staff, agency stakeholders and customers
- analyse information, identify issues and report your findings
- learn new software platforms and programs
- interpret, apply and explain legislation, policy and procedures.

What it's nice to have:

These things aren't essential, but if you have them that's great:

- experience in HP ALM, Agile testing
- basic understanding of test automation frameworks, systems and processes
- experience with programming languages including python, C++, ABAP and SQL.

Skills for the Information Age (SFIA):

- Acceptance testing BPTS - Level 4
- Methods and tools METL - Level 4
- User experience evaluation USEV - Level 3
- Testing TEST - Level 3

Security Clearance Requirements:

The successful candidate must be able to obtain and maintain a Baseline Security Clearance.

How to apply

Apply for the Aurora Neuroinclusion Program through Employ for Ability.

There are 3 stages to our recruitment process:

- application
- assessment
- selection.

Before you apply

Before you apply, check if you're eligible.

To be eligible, you need to provide evidence of a diagnosis of either:

- Autism Spectrum Disorder/Condition, including autistic disorder (autism), Asperger's syndrome, childhood disintegrative disorder, or pervasive developmental disorder not otherwise specified (PDD-NOS)
- Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD).

Evidence may include either:

- a full diagnostic report or a redacted section of your report that states autism or ADHD as a diagnosis
- a letter from a psychologist, psychiatrist or general practitioner confirming a diagnosis of autism or ADHD
- information confirming your diagnosis from a supporting agency such as the NDIS or a Disability Employment Services provider.

If you have any questions or concerns about your evidence, please contact aurora@employforability.com.au.

In addition to providing evidence of your diagnosis, you'll need to provide:

Proof of Australian citizenship – please refer to the information at the bottom of this document for details.

You must also:

- undergo an Australian government security clearance, including a criminal history check
- be able to obtain a Baseline security clearance
- live (or be willing to relocate to) a daily commutable distance to Canberra, ACT.

Tell us about you

- If you don't have a current CV or resume you may create one by listing your current and previous work and educational history (in date order from most recent to least recent on a Word document and upload to your application).
- Make sure you include any volunteer work which would showcase your skills and demonstrate your suitability for the role.

In addition to demonstrating you meet the eligibility requirements, you must also provide a response to the 3 applicant response questions listed below:

Applicant response:

We ask that you write a one-page document (minimum 11pt font in Word or PDF format) that provides more information about you to support your application for this opportunity. This must be uploaded as an attachment on the application page.

In your response, please describe the following:

1. How your skills, knowledge and experience are relevant to this role.
2. What motivates you to apply for this role.
3. Any specific examples or achievements that demonstrate your suitability for the program.

To answer these questions, you may use work or study examples or from personal experience you may have (for example as a hobby from home). Ultimately, we'd like to know more about you and why you feel you would be suited to this role.

Notes on the assessment process:

Shortlisted applicants will be invited to attend a screening workshop, held in the Canberra CBD. Following this, a final shortlist will be conducted and those candidates will advance to the final stage of the recruitment process. This is a multiple day assessment led by Services Australia also held in the Canberra CBD.
