Project Support Officer (APS4)

Services Australia

About the Aurora Neuroinclusion Program:

Services Australia's Aurora Neuroinclusion Program (Aurora) aims to improve work and career outcomes for people with an autism or ADHD diagnosis.

Together with Employ for Ability, Aurora offers a unique recruitment process that's flexible, safe, supportive and inclusive. Aurora offers roles in a variety of fields and:

- provides a career pathway into the agency for people with an autism or ADHD diagnosis
- demonstrates the individual and organisational benefits of employing people with autism or ADHD through an inclusive recruitment process
- showcases the diverse and unique skills and attributes people with an autism or ADHD diagnosis have to offer in employment
- aims to increase the representation of people with disability in the agency and the Australian Public Service (APS).

Aurora offers:

- a tailored and flexible assessment phase
- non-ongoing and ongoing roles with attractive working conditions
- job security with a competitive salary
- opportunities to develop skills to support your career.

We're looking for people who:

- are keen to learn
- want to make a positive difference in the lives of Australians
- want to start their career in the APS.

If you're successful and matched to a role, you'll be offered a full-time non-ongoing or ongoing position. If you're rated suitable and not matched to a role, you'll be placed in a merit. The merit pool is active for 18 months from the advertising date. If a position becomes available during that time you may be considered for that position.

IMPORTANT DATES:

30 March 2026	Aurora Adelaide applications open
26 April 2026	Aurora Adelaide applications close

Aurora is accepting applications from eligible candidates for the following role based in ADELAIDE.

Project Support Officer (APS4) – Payments and Integrity Group

Project support professionals support the Project Manager. They monitor project schedules and budgets, prepare progress reports, and liaise with key stakeholders. Project Support Officers undertake procedural, administrative or operational tasks to support the delivery of the agency's projects. Working under the support and general direction of senior staff, their responsibilities include assisting with research and analysis, drafting project documentation and providing general administrative support to project related activities.

This role is located in the Fraud and Corruption Awareness team, in the Fraud and Identity Assurance Branch. The team supports the agency to build a strong fraud and corruption prevention culture through user centred, evidence-based training, resources and communication.

What you'll do:

As a Project Support Officer (APS4) you work as part of a multi-skilled team to:

- assist with the coordination of projects including plans and schedules
- assist with research activities to support projects
- conduct data analysis and prepare reporting
- assist and support the planning of communications for agency staff
- update intranet pages and documents
- support delivery of training packages
- represent the team or work area at meetings and forums

What you should have:

These things are important to have.

The ability to:

- research and make sound decisions within established guidelines
- demonstrate a high level of accuracy and attention to detail
- work independently and seek assistance when required
- manage time and plan your workload against performance expectations
- collaborate with other staff in immediate work area and in other areas of the agency
- communicate confidently in a clear and concise manner
- learn new software platforms and programs
- interpret, apply and explain legislation, policy and procedures.

What is nice to have:

These things aren't essential, but if you have them that's great:

Knowledge of:

- project management frameworks
- programs and services administered by the agency.

Security Clearance:

A Baseline Security clearance (or the ability to obtain and maintain) is required for this role.

How to apply

Apply for the Aurora Neuroinclusion Program through Employ for Ability.

There are 3 stages to our recruitment process:

- application
- assessment
- selection.

Before you apply

Before you apply, check if you're eligible.

To be eligible, you need to provide evidence of a diagnosis of either:

- Autism Spectrum Disorder/Condition, including autistic disorder (autism), Asperger's syndrome, childhood disintegrative disorder, or pervasive developmental disorder not otherwise specified (PDD-NOS)
- Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD).

Evidence may include either:

- a full diagnostic report or a redacted section of your report that states autism or ADHD as a diagnosis

- a letter from a psychologist, psychiatrist or general practitioner confirming a diagnosis of autism or ADHD
- information confirming your diagnosis from a supporting agency such as the NDIS or a Disability Employment Services provider.

If you have any questions or concerns about your evidence, please contact aurora@employforability.com.au.

In addition to providing evidence of your diagnosis, you'll need to provide:

Proof of Australian citizenship – please refer to the information at the bottom of this document for details.

You must also:

- undergo an Australian government security clearance, including a criminal history check
- live (or be willing to relocate to) a daily commutable distance to the Adelaide CBD.

Tell us about you

- If you don't have a current CV or resume you may create one by listing your current and previous work and educational history (in date order from most recent to least recent on a Word document and upload to your application).
- Make sure you include any volunteer work which would showcase your skills and demonstrate your suitability for the role.

In addition to demonstrating you meet the eligibility requirements, you must also provide a response to the 3 applicant response questions listed below:

Applicant response:

We ask that you write a one-page document (minimum 11pt font in Word or PDF format) that provides more information about you to support your application for this opportunity. This must be uploaded as an attachment on the application page.

In your response, please describe the following:

1. How your skills, knowledge and experience are relevant to this role.
2. What motivates you to apply for this role.
3. Any specific examples or achievements that demonstrate your suitability for the program.

To answer these questions, you may use work or study examples or from personal experience you may have (for example as a hobby from home). Ultimately, we'd like to know more about you and why you feel you would be suited to this role.

Notes on the assessment process:

Shortlisted applicants will be invited to attend a screening workshop, held in the Adelaide CBD. Following this, a final shortlist will be conducted, and those candidates will advance to the final stage of the recruitment process. This is a multiple day assessment led by Services Australia also held in the Adelaide CBD.
